COVID-19 Residential Rental Relief Extra Support

COVID-19
INFO

The Tasmanian Government is extending support to Tasmanian tenants by providing a second, third and fourth round of financial help for residential tenants who are experiencing rental hardship due to the coronavirus COVID-19 pandemic.

Financial support is available until 31 March 2021.

What is the COVID-19 Residential Rental Relief Extra Support?

The Tasmanian Government is providing a second, third and fourth round of financial help for residential tenants who are experiencing rental hardship due to the coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic.

Residential tenants, who have previously been approved for rental relief are eligible to apply for a second, third or fourth round of financial help until 31 March 2021.

Who is eligible?

You are eligible for the payment if:

- You are a tenant, sub-tenant, boarder or lodger
- You previously received a rental relief payment
- You are still having problems paying your rent due to the COVID-19 pandemic

How to make an application for rental relief

Complete the Residential Rental Relief Extra Support online form. As part of the process you will need to upload a copy of your current rental lease agreement.

Acceptable document formats are doc, docx, pdf, jpg. Make sure your documents are in a suitable format before you start the online application.

How long is the financial support available?

Financial support is available until 31 March 2021.

Does this mean I can stop paying rent?

No. Tenants are still expected to pay rent as agreed in their lease agreement or any other negotiated rent reduction agreement.

How is the money paid?

The money is paid directly to the tenant's property agent, lessor or landlord to contribute to the tenant's rental payments.

I'm not an Australian citizen.

Can I apply?

Yes. There are no citizenship or permanent residency requirements for applicants. People may be eligible for the payment include casual workers on holiday or working visas, skilled visas, seasonal workers, New Zealand citizens and all refugee and temporary protection visa holders.
