The needs of the community and likely effect on your employees

- 1. What would the likely effect be on the community if the Minister decided not to make an order?
(eg if the local baker is closed, people within the community would be unable to buy freshly baked bread)

- 2. What would the likely effect be on your employees if the Minister decided to make an order?
The intention of section 5B of the Anzac Day Observance Act 1929 is to ensure that most employees will not be prevented from participating in or attending Anzac Day events.

Have you asked your employees whether they would be willing to work on Anzac Day?
The Anzac Day Observance Act 1929 requires that an employee must agree, in writing, to work on Anzac Day.

Supporting Information

Please provide evidence that the manager/owner of the shop has consulted with the local RSL Branch (or, in the absence of a local branch, the state branch). Such consultation ensures that the requested exemption period will not conflict with parades or other Anzac Day services set down for the district or region.
