

Celebrate International Women's Day 2020
by joining one of the following great events!

Department of Communities Tasmania
International Women's Day Calendar of Events
March 2020

SOUTHERN TASMANIA

Date	Organisation & Event	Venue	Time	Bookings/Contact	Cost	Additional Information
Monday 2 March	West Moonah Community House invites you to celebrate IWD at a series of four empowerment and goal-focussing sessions in drumming, pilates, the use of power tools and the advantages of "happy hormones".	West Moonah Community House, 130 Springfield Avenue, West Moonah	9am – 7:30pm	6273 2362 Go to the West Moonah Community House website: https://westmoonahcommunityhouse.com/upcoming-activities/ then click on the International Women's Day events tab or contact info@westmoonahcommunityhouse.com	$5 for Happy Hormones, Women's Drumming and Pilates, $10 for Empower Yourself session	Bookings are required for catering purposes. Happy Hormones: 9:30am Pilates: 7-8pm Please check the website for other session times.
Monday 2 March	Unions Tasmania invites you to their IWD march and BBQ in Franklin Square to highlight the work still to be done to address the challenges faced by women in health care, housing, the workplace, gender inequality, family and domestic violence. Speakers will include Her Excellency Professor the Honourable Kate Warner, AC, Governor of Tasmania; Jessica Munday, Secretary, Unions Tasmania; Natalie Hocking, Family and Domestic Violence Survivor; and Deanne Lance, Housing Sector Worker.	Franklin Square Hobart	12:15- 1:00pm	Further details about this event can be found at https://www.facebook.com/events/2516636495259982/?active_tab=about	Free event

Tuesday 3 March	Celebrate IWD with an evening supper at the Okines Community House Garden. Local women farmers will be presenting stories of their farming enterprises, businesses and working lives to encourage other women in their primary production entrepreneurial endeavours.	Okines Community House Garden 540 Old Forcett Road Dodges Ferry	5:30pm	Nat Siggins, Community House Manager 6265 7016 0438 651 155 natsiggins@okinescommunityhouse.com.au	Free event	Bookings are not required for this event.
Thursday 5 March	Engender Equality is conducting an invitation only reflective presentation by the Advocates for Change group to promote real mechanisms for meaningful consultation and engagement with family and sexual abuse survivors.	Government House	6pm	Alina Thomas CEO Engender Equality 6278 9090 ceo@engenderequality.org.au	Free event	Bookings are required for this event and all attendees will be officially invited. The event will be hosted by Her Excellency Professor the Honourable Kate Warner AC and Mr Richard Warner AM.
Thursday 5 March	The Hobart Women's Shelter invites their resident women and children to a wellbeing morning and communal lunch to honour and celebrate the courage and determination, strength and resilience of women who have experienced domestic violence, controlling behaviour, and/or physical/sexual/emotional abuse. There will also be pampering sessions, craft activities for children, and legal and medical information sessions. This is not a public event and it is not open to non-clients.	Hobart Women's Shelter	11am – 2pm	Janet Saunders CEO Hobart Women's Shelter 6273 8455 ceo@hobartws.org.au	Free event	Bookings are not required for this event.

Thursday 5 March	The Kingborough and Huon Business Enterprise Centre invites you to their fourth IWD Gala Dinner. Guest speakers will be Bec Enders (Mayor of Huon Valley Council), and Alison Rogers (Property Consultant -EIS Property and Pulse Business Services). The event will recognise the economic, political and social achievements of women past, present and future.	Southern Lights Hotel, 19 Kingston View Drive, Kingston	6:30pm	Scott Duffy, Manager, Kingborough Community Enterprise Centre 6229 9200 or 0408 299 200 kcec@live.com Booking link: https://www.trybooking.com/BHUF B	$70 per person	Bookings are required for catering purposes.
Friday 6 March	The Migrant Resources Centre (Southern Tasmania) invites you to their "Each for Equal, Age for Age" morning tea for older CaLD women and local school students. The event will celebrate the contribution of culturally and linguistically diverse (CaLD) women to the lives and learnings of the younger generation, and highlight the barriers to employment, education, and inclusion that these women have faced.	German Day Centre, 30 Bowden Street, Glenorchy	10am – 12noon	Josephine Young (MRC) 6221 0999 jyoung@mrctas.org.au	Free event	Bookings are required for catering purposes.
Friday 6 March	Jordan River Services and the Bridgewater Community Centre invite you to an IWD morning tea and craft session with local guest speakers sharing their inspiring stories in a supportive environment. The event aims to encourage all women to be supportive and respectful of each other, and the craft session will involve beautifying the mesh fence surrounding the centre with weavings.	Bridgewater Community Centre 6 Bowden Drive Bridgewater	11am – 12:30pm	Chelsea Barnes, Centre Coordinator 6263 4303 0448 902 804 chelsea.barnes@jrsinc.org.au	Free event	Bookings are not required for this event.

Friday 6 March	LGAT, TasCOSS, UTAS Tasplan and the Tasmanian State Service invite you to the cross-sector IWD Luncheon to celebrate the achievements of Tasmanian women and support the creation of a gender equal world. The Tasplan IWD Awards for Excellence 2020 will be presented at the luncheon. Guest speaker will be Trisha Squires, CEO of AFL Tasmania – the first female CEO in AFL, Founder of the Broadbridge Fund and 2019 Tasmanian Telstra Business Woman of the Year. Trisha is recognised for her leadership qualities, clear strategic thinking and her resilience, and she has an impressive breadth and depth of experience across commercial, philanthropic and community roles.	Ricky Ponting Room, Blundstone Arena, 15 Derwent Street, Bellerive	12noon – 2pm	https://iwd2020tas.eventbrite.com.au	$80	Nomination forms for the Tasplan IWD Awards for Excellence 2020 can be downloaded from https://www.tascoss.org.au/wp-content/uploads/2019/11/Tasplan-IWD-Awards-for-Excellence-2020-Nomination-Form-FILLABLE-1.pdf and returned by email to awards@tascoss.org.au by 9am, Monday 17 February. The 6 cross-sector award categories for nominations are listed on the TasCOSS website: www.tascoss.org.au Bookings are required for catering purposes.
Thursday 5 March	Join with Tasmanian women leaders to discuss this year’s IWD theme: “An Equal World is an Enabled World”. Presenters will be: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Kym Goodes - CEO, Tasmanian Council of Social Service • Dr Jess Melbourne-Thomas - Tasmania's Australian of the Year • Caroline Sharpen - CEO, Tasmanian Symphony Orchestra • Distinguished Professor Maggie Walter - palawa community, UTAS 	Stanley Burbury Theatre, University Centre, Sandy Bay Campus	6:00 – 7:30pm	Book at UTAS: https://www.utas.edu.au/events/2020/march/eachforequal-international-womens-day-forum		Bookings are required for this event. Refreshments included from 5:30pm

Friday 6 March	Grade 10 students from Woodbridge School will be presenting their “Identity” poems at a community IWD event morning tea. The theme of “Each for Equal” will speak to the fact that individuals are responsible for their own thoughts and actions, and that we can all actively choose to challenge stereotypes, fight bias, and broaden perceptions. The event aims to positively engage students with an activity that promotes self-awareness, encourages social participation, and empowers them to be agents for personal and social change.	Westwinds Community Centre, 3528 Channel Highway, Woodbridge	10:30am	Dianna Atkins, Woodbridge School Social Worker: 6267 4667 dianna.atkins@education.tas.gov.au	Free event	Bookings are required for catering purposes.
Saturday 7 March	Women in Fishing event – Hobart Clinic. Fishing clinics for females are being held around the state to encourage more women and girls to participate in fishing. Whilst some women are already experienced fishers, others have never picked up a rod but are keen to learn. If this sounds like you, come to one of the clinics where you'll get tips from experienced volunteers and female mentors. We have gear available to use or bring your own rod. Learn how to rig it, cast your line and handle a fish when you catch one.	Domain Boat Ramp Regatta Grounds Hobart	11:00am – 1:00pm	Fishcare South Fishcare Coordinator South 1 Franklin Wharf Hobart TAS 7000 Phone: 03 6165 3039 Email: fishcaresouth@dpipwe.tas.gov.au	Free event	Bookings are preferred for this event. There will be giveaways at each event including rods and fishing caps.
Saturday 7 March	The Filipino Women’s Support Group is hosting a dinner to honour the achievements of southern Filipino women in the fields of entrepreneurship, aged care, religious/cultural traditions and community service.	Claremont RSL	From 6:30pm	Florence Parker Advocacy Support Worker 0438 658 337 btanodoz@yahoo.com.au	$30 per person for dinner	Bookings are required for catering purposes.

Sunday 8 March	The Goodwood Community Centre invites you to their Pot Luck Multicultural Lunch cooked by local women from a range of different cultures and ages. The event is designed to introduce neighbours, create new friends, foster community spirit and provide space for women to be women.	Goodwood Community Centre, 20 Acton Crescent, Goodwood	12 noon	Allison Ryland Garden Program Coordinator 6272 2560 0409 512 580 goodwood@bigpond.net.au	Free event	Bookings are required for catering purposes.
Sunday 8 March	“Stretch for Success” by Dress for Success. Join us for a yoga class, followed by a delicious brunch.	The Hanging Garden, Murray Street, Hobart	9-11am	https://www.eventbrite.com.au/e/92294446173	$40 includes yoga class and brunch	Bookings are required for this event for catering purposes. BYO mat and water bottle.
Sunday 8 March	St Lukes Health Fitex Tasmania is conducting an IWD Empower You day of outdoor exercise session in the grounds of Wrest Point. Female health and fitness leaders will feature three x burpee world record holder Lou Robertson, Gabrielle and Angela of Instagram fame, Sam Lawson and Kate Watts.	Wrest Point lawns, Sandy Bay	8:30am – 12noon	Nikki Long 0418 544 794 Tickets can be booked online at: https://www.eventbrite.com.au/e/international-womens-day-empower-you-tickets-91746114097	$15 per person general admission, or $60 VIP tickets.	Bookings are required for this event. $15 per person general admission includes unlimited workout sessions, or $60 VIP tickets that include unlimited workout sessions plus admission for an exclusive brunch in the revolving restaurant.
Tuesday 10 March	The Department of Education Connected Beginnings organisation invites all women from the Bridgewater/Gagebrook area to a “Brunch in the Park” event to celebrate the collective voice of women. Fitness activities will be included, and transport offered to those wishing to attend.	Bridgewater Park behind the Bridgewater library	10:30am – 12:30pm	Margaret Nolan, Project Manager Connected Beginnings 6165 5452 margie.nolan@education.tas.gov.au	Free event	Bookings are not required for this event. In the case of inclement weather, activities will be held in the library.

Wednesday 11 March	The Royal Hobart Hospital Research Foundation Invites you to their annual IWD Breakfast. This is Tasmania's largest IWD event, and this year they welcome a panel of some of Australia's most successful Olympians to share their stories and to raise funds and awareness for local Tasmanian medical research. Louise Sauvage will be among the panellists, and she dominated the sport of wheelchair track and road race events during her career, having won a total of nine gold and four silver medals from four Paralympic Games.	Wrest Point Tasman Room, 410 Sandy Bay Road, Sandy Bay	6:30 for 7am start – 8:30am	Bookings can be made by phone at 6166 1319 Or via the Royal Hobart Hospital Research Foundation website: www.rhhresearchfoundation.org	Early bird tickets $60 per person. Tickets then $70 per person from 18 February.	Bookings are required for catering purposes.
Thursday 12 March	Women's Health Tasmania invites all genders to their IWD Dance/Comedy Night "First We Dance – Then We Revolt". The night will feature Kudo Joy (dramatic pop with jazz-soul trimmings) and Mum and Pop (golden era hip-hop duo).	Moonah Arts Centre	Door opens 7pm; Bands from 7:30pm	Call 6231 3212 or visit the Women's Health website: www.womenshealthtas.org.au	Tickets $30/$25/ $20

Thursday 12 March	Dominic College is holding an IWD Breakfast with guest speaker Dr Joanna Vince, Lecturer, UTAS Senior Lecturer, Politics and International Relations. Joanna is also a leading researcher in oceans governance and marine resources management. The breakfast is designed to connect students to issues facing their counterparts in different parts of the world, and to encourage them to use their talents and skills to make a difference in the world and lead a meaningful life. Staff, students, their families, friends and the general public are welcome, with proceeds going to the Don Bosco High School and Vocational Centre in Samoa.	Dominic College, 204 Tolosa Street, Glenorchy	7:15am – 8:30am	Frances Archer 6274 6095 Tickets can be purchased online at: https://www.trybooking.com/BHRHR	$15 per person	Bookings are required for catering purposes.
Sunday 22 March	The Zonta Club of Hobart Derwent invites you to a presentation focussing on convict women's stories. Dr Dianne Snowden will be speaking about convict women and their children, followed by Judith and Chris Cornish who will give a performance of "her Story".	North Hobart Bowls and Community Centre, 1-5 Ryde Street, Hobart	2:00 – 4:00pm	Email lynnwhittle13@gmail.com or Mandy at recollectionstas@gmail.com	$30 per person	Bookings are required for catering purposes. Afternoon tea will be provided.
Saturday 28 March	Join Endometriosis Australia for their EndoMarch High Tea. Join a worldwide event to raise funds for research and education while raising awareness about Endometriosis.	Rydges Hobart, 393 Argyle Street, North Hobart	1:00 – 4:00pm	For booking contact Eventbrite at: https://www.eventbrite.com.au/e/hobart-endomarch-high-tea-2020-tickets-86466402337	$67.52 - $92.05 per person	Bookings are required for this event.

NORTHERN TASMANIA

Date	Organisation & Event	Venue	Time	Bookings/Contact	Cost	Additional Information
Wednesday 4 March	A Cultural Awareness Forum to enable local women to assist culturally diverse community groups is being conducted by Volunteering Services Australia. Two guest speakers will provide the training and tools for women to encourage groups to be productive and contribute to the local economy by engaging in volunteering, paid work or providing educational opportunities.	TasTAFE Alanvale Campus, Block A	2-4pm	Sue Musgrave Community Engagement Officer Volunteering Services Australia (Launceston) 0477 771 229 susan.musgrave@vsaustralia.org.au	Free Event	Bookings are required for catering purposes.
Wednesday 4 March	The Rotary Club of Tamar Sunrise invites you to their annual IWD Breakfast with three Tasmanian guest speakers outlining their professional and social achievements based on the 2020IWD theme of "Each for Equal".	Grand Chancellor Hotel, Launceston	7am – 8:30am	Judith McLean 6312 5169 or 0466 722 553 Tickets can be purchased online at: https://launcestontickets.com.au/event/11007	$45 per person	Bookings are required for catering purposes.
Friday 6 March	The Break O Day Regional Group, Tasmanian Women in Agriculture, invite you to their Break O Day IWD Luncheon with guest speaker Ms Jane Bennett, CEO and Managing Director of TasFoods. Jane was Tasmanian Telstra Business Woman of the Year in 2010 and has 20 years of experience in the dairy industry, both in Tasmania and the United Kingdom. She is currently a Director of Food Innovation Australia and the Australian Broadcasting Corporation.	Parkside Bar and Restaurant, 8 St Helens Point Road, St Helens	12noon – 2pm	Mhari Tucker 0417 121 585 mhari@antuangus.com.au	$50 per person	Bookings are required for catering purposes. Lucky Door and raffle prizes will be available at the luncheon.

Sunday 8 March	St Helens Neighbourhood House Free2Be Girls Group has organised a “Listen Up” IWD event to celebrate women’s voices in the Break O Day municipality. Community members are invited to invite women they admire for speaking up in life and to share the reasons they admire these women’s contribution to their community. These women might be friends, wives, daughters, or perhaps local councillors. Guest speakers Tania Hunt (YNOT) will talk about her advocacy role for young people’s voices in Tasmania, and Kylie Dunn (Regional Arts Tasmania) will explain how she uses art to get her messages across to the public.	St Helens Neighbourhood House, 25 Circassian Street, St Helens	2-4pm	Trish O’Duffy, Manager, St Helens Neighbourhood House 6376 1134 toduffy@sthelensnhh.org.au	By donation	Bookings are required for catering purposes. Kylie Dunn will create a poster capturing a vision based on what women in the BOD region value as being important for the future of their community.
Sunday 8 March	Women in Fishing event – St Helens. Fishing clinics for females are being held around the state to encourage more women and girls to participate in fishing. Whilst some women are already experienced fishers, others have never picked up a rod but are keen to learn. If this sounds like you, come to one of the clinics where you'll get tips from experienced volunteers and female mentors. We have gear available to use or bring your own rod. Learn how to rig it, cast your line and handle a fish when you catch one.	Main Wharf, St Helens	11am – 1:00pm	Fishcare Volunteers North Fishcare Coordinator North (Work days: Mon-Wed) DPIPWE Mt Pleasant Offices 171 Westbury Road Launceston TAS 7250 Phone: 03 6777 2082 Email: fishcarenorth@dpipwe.tas.gov.au	Free event	Bookings are preferred for this event. There will be giveaways at each event including rods and fishing caps.

Wednesday 11 March	Flinders Council is celebrating IWD with a “Ladies Lichen Breakfast” giving three local women from different backgrounds and cultures the opportunity to share stories of successes and trials along their journeys. By celebrating the diversity of their community they will recognise the common bond shared by women who call Flinders Island home.	Flinders Island Sports and RSL Club	7:30am	Sammi Gowthorp Community Development Officer 6359 5006 sammi.gowthorp@flinders.tas.gov.au	$15 per person	Bookings are required for catering purposes.
Thursday 12 March	The Clifford Craig Foundation invites you to their IWD Luncheon with guest speaker Dr Ginni Mansberg. Dr Mansberg is Channel 7’s Sunrise and Morning Show resident GP and she has been a well-respected GP for more than 20 years, specialising in the areas of parenting, women’s, children’s and general health. She is also an expert on SBS’s Medicine or Myth, and host of Foxtel’s Embarrassing Bodies Australia. Her other roles include being an ambassador for Barnardos’ Mother of the Year; board member of the Australian Cervical Cancer Foundation; supervisor in the Medical facility of the University of Notre Dame; and being an accomplished medical journalist. She will be signing copies of her newly released book: “The M Word – How to Thrive in Menopause”.	Country Club Tasmania	12 noon	Phone the Clifford Craig Foundation on 6777 6010, or book through admin@cliffordcraig.org.au	$75 per person includes a glass of champagne on arrival and a two-course lunch.	Bookings are required for catering purposes, and the RSVP date is 5 March 2020.

NORTH WEST TASMANIA

Date	Organisation & Event	Venue	Time	Bookings/Contact	Cost	Additional Information
Thursday 5 March	Housing Choices Tasmania and the East Devonport Community House invite you to celebrate inspired and inspiring women at their IWD Lunch. There will be a market for women to showcase their creative talents such as music, dance, art, gardening or craft, and trash and treasure giveaway tables.	East Devonport Recreation Centre, Caroline Street, East Devonport	11am – 2pm	Kathryn Robinson (Housing Choices) 1300 312 447 kathryn.robinson@hcau.org.au OR Lisa (East Devonport Community House) 6427 9985 lisa_esch@westnet.com.au	Free event	Free market stalls available. Bookings are required for catering purposes.
Thursday 5 March	Soroptimist International of Circular Head invite you to their annual fellowship supper to acknowledge the unsung heroines of the Circular Head region who quietly contribute to their community, often with little thanks or recognition.	Circular Head Hall of Fame, Smithton Recreation Centre, Nelson Street, Smithton	7:30pm	Lynne Bramich, Coordinator, Soroptimist Awards Committee 0427 561 374 lynnebramich@activ8.net.au	Gold coin donation. No charge to award recipients.	Bookings are required for catering purposes.
Thursday 5 March	Live Well Tasmania invites you to an afternoon tea with a “Sewing Empowerment Circle” theme. Enjoy being creative while you discuss how women can work together to increase their personal power and learn about the Community Exchange Network Project.	Live Well Tasmania Community Centre, 28 Saunders Street, Wynyard	1:30 – 3:30pm	Robin Krabbe 6438 1454 or 0421 461 724 rkrabbe@westnet.com.au	Free event	Bookings are required for catering purposes.

Friday 6 March	Burnie City Council in conjunction with BIG are holding an IWD luncheon to celebrate all local and global women. Guest speaker will be Gina Webster, Secretary, Tasmanian Justice Department. The function will also highlight the work of BIG - a group of local business, community and education representatives working to create and encourage pathways and increase aspirations for Burnie youth.	Burnie Arts and Function Centre	12 noon 1:30pm	Burnie Arts and Function Centre 64305850 www.burniearts.net	$55 per person or $440 for a table of eight. This includes a $5 donation to Warrawee Women's Shelter.	Bookings are required for catering purposes.
Friday 6 March	Circular Head Aboriginal Corporation invites you to their IWD "Women of the Wild West" Morning Tea with guest speakers to celebrate West Coast women. The event will be supported by other Circular Head women's organisations such as Rural Health, Circular Head Soroptimists and the Circular Head Multicultural Group, with fundraising for the distribution and promotion of Women's Dignity Bags for homeless women and young females.	Trawmanna, 73 Mella Road, Smithton	10am – 12noon	Beverley Blakemore, CHAC Administration Officer 6452 1287 b.blakemore@chac.com.au or chac.reception@chac.com.au	Free event	Bookings are required for catering purposes.
Friday 6 March	Kentish House will be providing an IWD High Tea for members of the Kentish community. Guest speaker Dr Jane Cooper from the Don Medical Clinic will provide perspectives from her life on the mental health challenges that can be experienced by young women trying to access health and education services.	Sheffield Town Hall, 66 High Street, Sheffield	10am	Cassandra, Kentish House Coordinator 6491 2322 0447 325 343 kentishhouse@glenhaven.org.au	Free event	Bookings are required for catering purposes.

Friday 6 March	The Devonport Online Access Centre invites you to a free Mobile Phones Training Session. The aim of this session is to allow women to develop better digital skills and to empower them to feel confident with modern technology.	Devonport Online, Level 1, paranple Convention Centre, 137 Rooke Street, Devonport	9 – 11am	Devonport Online 0444 525 434 devonport.oac@education.tas.gov.au	Free event	Bookings are required for this event, and morning tea will be provided
Saturday 7 – Monday 9 March	Surfing Tasmania will be filming a short documentary film “Waves4Everyone” of women and girls surfing at the West Coast Classic event at Marrawah designed to promote inclusivity and diversity. A marquee forum held during the weekend will feature three times winner of the WCC and Marrawah local Sarah Prior (Science Teacher at Smithton High School). Sarah will speak about her advocacy role promoting women in surfing, and other women participating in the WCC will also be interviewed.	Marrawah	Contact Surfing Tasmania for the time of the forum	Shayne Clark, CEO, Surfing Tasmania 0429 891 102 skclarks@bigpond.net.au	Free event	Bookings are not required for this event.
Sunday 8 March	Join with the Rosebery Community House for a “Let’s Talk About What is Different” discussion session and trivia games. The event will focus on what has been different between the generations, and a felting activity to add to a community tapestry. Local women and girls will be encouraged to speak about what they like about Rosebery, and what changes they would like to see in the future.	Rosebery Community House	4 – 6pm	Rosebery Community House 6473 1497 manager@roseberycommunityhouse.com.au	$5 per person	Bookings are required for catering purposes.

Sunday 8 March	Women in Fishing event – Somerset. Fishing clinics for females are being held around the state to encourage more women and girls to participate in fishing. Whilst some women are already experienced fishers, others have never picked up a rod but are keen to learn. If this sounds like you, come to one of the clinics where you'll get tips from experienced volunteers and female mentors. We have gear available to use or bring your own rod. Learn how to rig it, cast your line and handle a fish when you catch one.	Cam River near the playground, Somerset	11:00am – 1:00pm	Fishcare Volunteers North West Fishcare Coordinator North West (Work days: Mon-Wed) Cradle Coast Authority Portside Building 3 Spring Street Burnie TAS 7320 Phone: 03 6477 7835 Mobile: 0408 337 317 Email: fishcarenw@dpiwve.tas.gov.au	Free event	Bookings are preferred for this event. There will be giveaways at each event including rods and fishing caps.
Tuesday 10 March	The Zeehan Neighbourhood Centre invites you to their IWD lunch with a guest speaker to be announced. The morning will celebrate the achievements and contributions of local West Coast women to the community.	Somer House, Zeehan Neighbourhood Centre	12:30pm	Melissa Sullivan, Manager, Zeehan Neighbourhood Centre 6471 6108 manager.znc@zeehan.net.au	$10 per person	Bookings are required for catering purposes.
Tuesday 10 March	Join Devonport City Council for an IWD Supper with a panel of 3-4 local women discussing their achievements. The panellist's focus will revolve around the 2020 IWD theme of "Each for Equal".	paranaple Convention Centre, 137 Rooke Street, Devonport	6pm	Charmane Hardy 6424 0549 or 0408 142 517 Tickets can be booked online at: https://www.eventbrite.com.au/e/each-for-equal-panel-discussion-tickets-93026319225?aff=ebdssbcitybrose	Free event	Bookings are required for catering purposes.

Wednesday 11 March	Soroptimist International Devonport invite you to their IWD evening forum with guest speaker Crystal Garwood – President of the Law Society of Australia and Director of a local Devonport law firm. Crystal will be addressing the 2020 IWD theme of “Each for Equal”.	St Johns Church Hall, Fenton Street, Devonport	6pm	Lynette Johnson, President, Soroptimist International Devonport 0439 963 836 Lindyloo7@gmail.com	$10 per member and $5 per guest	Bookings are required for catering purposes.
-----------------------	---	--	-----	---	--------------------------------------	--