Provide information about your organisation and about the aim of the project.	The aim of this project was to bridge a gap in service provision using trained volunteers to undertake social support to directly benefit people with dementia. this project gave volunteers the opportunity to enhance the life of a person with dementia through reducing their social isolation and encourage community participation.
Describe the project's target group or target community.	People with a diagnosis of dementia, particularly those living alone and experiencing social isolation.
How do you know if the project made a difference or change?	The programme is still operating and to date 12 volunteers have been recruited as "Memory Friends"
How did the target community get involved?	People with dementia who were deemed to be eligible for the service were individually matched with volunteers, after consultation with appropriate family carers.
How can the target community continue to support or maintain the project's results?	There will continue to be a need for this service in the long term, as many new clients who are assessed by us are living alone.
